My Experience & Qualifications:

My name is Lauren Dentinger and I am a consultant in the central NY area. I have been a New York State licensed speech-language pathologist (SLP) since 2011 and have extensive experience in the field of Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC), including evaluating, justifying, and implementing a variety of AAC devices and access methods. I hold my Certificate of Clinical Competence from ASHA and I am certified as a Teacher of Students with Speech and Language Disabilities.
